The Female Husband.

The state, and in fact the whole country, has been much interested, for two weeks, over a queer case of marriage at Waupun. A young man, or an alleged young man, named Frank Dubois, wooed and won a girl, and they were married. All moved along happily, to all outward appearances, until two weeks ago, when a man named Hudson appeared upon the scene and claimed that the "man" Dubois was his wife, Mrs. Hudson, who had deserted him, and who was the mother of his two children. The story was believed, and Dubois and the girl he had married, went away from Waupun to Brandon, Fond Du Lac, and finally to Chilton, followed by tireless newspaper reporters, until the couple were footsore, and wished they were dead. It is said that Dubois has confessed that he was a woman, and his wife has admitted as much. The wife was informed of the fact after they were married, and both agreed to keep it a secret, which they would have done very likely for all time, only for the appearance of Hudson. It is a queer freak, and the deceived wife has every reason to be offended at the deception that has been practised upon her. It is bad enough for a girl to marry a man, but to marry what is supposed to be a man and then to find that the husband is a woman, must be heart-rending. What the object of the female husband could have been the world will never know, but hereafter it will stand girls in hand to refer suitors to their parents when they propose matrimony, or cause them to produce a certificate that they are what they seem. The marriage relation is an excellent thing for the world at large, but if it is fooled with in this way by amateurs, it will be brought into discredit and will become very unpopular. The idea of a woman playing husband, and trying to split wood, or drive team, is absurd. The best woman in the world could not take the place of a man, and do chores around the house, and go down town nights, and come home full of election whisky, without giving herself away. Such a husband would be of no account on earth, in case of burglars getting into the house. Imagine a burglar entering a bedroom occupied by such a couple, in the dead hour of night, to burgle. The spectacle of two heads going under the bedclothes at once, and two female screams, where there was one pair of pants on the floor, would mix up the most hardened burglar, and make him think he had struck a lunatic asylum. What would such a husband amount to if a neighbor should call to whip him because his children had been throwing oyster cans over the next fence? The female husband would get behind his wife and cry. Suppose the wife of a female husband should be taken sick in the night, and want a female doctor? The female husband wouldn't dare get up and jump into a couple of pants and go down town on a run after a doctor. He would want the wife to get up and go with him. Suppose a cow should get into the garden, and had to be driven out. All such a husband could do would be to pull up his vest and shake like an apron, and say "shoo," and run into the house when the cow turned her head to nip a cabbage. What would such a husband amount to if an old lover of the wife should call and offer to kiss the wife for old acquaintance sake? All the female husband could do, would be to pull his hair and pout. Suppose the house caught fire in the night, such a husband couldn't grab pants in one hand and a pail of water in the other, and go out on the roof. The female husband would have to make an elaborate toilet, and go to the fire in a carriage. O, female husbands are never going to take the place of the old fashioned male article. A female husband could never go to a caucus and smoke election cigars, and come rolling home in the morning without somebody came home with him. Such a husband would make a nice appearance riding a horse as marshal of the day, on the 4th of July. A female husband going to get measured for a new suit of clothes, would be a spectacle for gods and men. It is well that the female husband business in Wisconsin is thus early nipped in the bud, and it is hoped that an end has been put to it for all time.—Peck's Sun.

A gentleman was giving a little Keokuk baby boy some peanuts the other day. The good mother said: "Now what are you going to say to the gentleman?" With childish simplicity the little fellow looked up in the gentleman's face and replied: "More!"—Keokuk, Ia., Democrat.

Dispatches of the morning said: "Market acts tired. Think it will react."

"The bark went down," said the ague patient after he had swallowed a big dose of quinine.
